FEATURING
MARTIN
SHORT

A celebrated comedian and actor, Martin Short has won fans and accolades in television, film and theater since his breakout season on Saturday Night Live more than 30 years ago.

Short became an SNL fan favorite for his portrayal of characters such as Ed Grimley, lawyer Nathan Thurman and "legendary songwriter" Irving Cohen. His popularity on SNL led Short to cross over quickly into feature films. He made his debut in Three Amigos and followed with Innerspace, Three Fugitives, Clifford, Pure Luck, and Tim Burton's Mars Attacks!. One of Short's most memorable roles was Franck the wedding planner in the remake of Father of the Bride and its sequel, Father of the Bride Part II. Short lent his voice to the animated film Madagascar 3 and Tim Burton's Oscar-nominated Frankenweenie.

An accomplished stage actor, Short won a Tony, Theatre World Award and an Outer Critics Circle Award for his role in the revival of Little Me. He was also nominated for a Tony and took home an Outer Critics Circle Award for the musical version of Neil Simon's The Goodbye Girl, and co-wrote and starred in Fame Becomes Me.

A two-time primetime Emmy winner, Short returned to television in 1998 for the miniseries Merlin and as host of

The Martin Short Show. In 2001, he launched the popular comedy Primetime Glick and in 2010 received critical acclaim for his role in FX's drama series Damages.

Short has also returned to SNL as host three times and performed in the series' landmark 40th anniversary special in February 2015. Other recent television credits include Hairspray Live!; Maya & Marty; Mulaney; How I Met Your Mother; and the critically acclaimed PBS series Cat in the Hat Knows a Lot About That.

Short's New York Times-bestselling memoir, I Must Say: My Life as a Humble Comedy Legend, was published in 2014.

In 1994, Short was awarded the Order of Canada—the Canadian equivalent to British knighthood. In 2000, he was inducted into the Canadian Walk of Fame, and in 2017 he received a Lifetime Artistic Achievement Award from the Governor-general of Canada.

Short's Netflix special with Steve Martin, An Evening You Will Forget For The Rest Of Your Life, received four Emmy nominations in 2018. Short and Martin are currently on their new tour, "Now You See Them, Soon You Won't."
